From Saturday July 25 to Tuesday July 28. 1713.

Kenſington, July 25.

THE following Addreſs from the County of Somerſet, was preſented to Her Majeſty by the Right Hon. the Lord Hawley and Sir William Wyndham, Bart. being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Ormond, Lord Lieutenant of the ſaid County.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Juſtices of the Peace, Grand Jury, and other Gentlemen of the County of Somerſet, aſſembled at a General Quarter Seſſions of the Peace held for the ſaid County at Bridgwater.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects preſume, with the utmoſt Humility, to offer at Your Sacred Feet, the juſt Returns of our ſincereſt Thanks for thoſe glorious and advantageous Treaties of Peace and Commerce which Your great Wiſdom and Reſolution has obtained for Your People; notwithſtanding the unreaſonable Difficulties raiſed to obſtruct the ſame, the ſituation of thoſe Acquiſitions Your Majeſty hath been pleaſed to accept, the Enlargements of our Foreign Trade, and the Security ſo fully ſtipulated, on the Exportation of our Manufactures, make it moſt evident, that Your Majeſty, through the whole courſe of this great Affair, preferr'd the Good and Welfare of Your People, to the aggrandizing Your own Power, or extending Your Dominions.

After theſe Inſtances of Your Royal Care and Goodneſs, we humbly crave leave to aſſure Your Majeſty, that no Factious Inſinuations ſhall Influence or Divide this Your Loyal County, and that we will ever contend with the forwardeſt of our Fellow Subjects in ſuppreſſing all Attempts that ſhall diſturb the Proteſtant Succeſſion, cauſe any Uneaſineſs to Your Majeſty, or obſtruct the Glory and Security of Your moſt auſpicious Government.

The following Addreſs from the County of Cumberland, was preſented to Her Majeſty by Sir Chriſtopher Muſgrave; being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl of Dartmouth, Her Majeſty's Principal Secretary of State.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Sheriff, Juſtices of the Peace, Grand Jury, Clergy, and other Gentlemen of the County of Cumberland, met at the General Quarter Seſſions of the Peace holden at Carliſle.

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

THE many Bleſſings we have ever enjoy'd under Your Majeſty's moſt auſpicious Government are ſo great, that we can never too much expreſs our Gratitude. The Union of Your Nations is the effect of Your Royal Wiſdom, as the glorious Succeſs of Your Arms is of Your prudent Conduct; and notwithſtanding the different Views of contending Powers, an honourable Peace is now brought home to us.

Thus, Madam, under the Protection of Your gracious Reign, and by Your Pious Endeavours to ſecure the Succeſſion of Your Crown to the Illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover, our Sacred and Civil Rights are ſecured to us and our Poſterity, and we have nothing left to Contend about, but who ſhall, by the beſt Demonſtrations of Loyalty, in our reſpective Stations, and with the greateſt Zeal and Devotion, approve our ſelves Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful Subjects and Servants.

Which Addreſſes Her Majeſty received very graciouſly.

Lisbon, July 18. N. S. This Court hath agreed with that of Spain, to prolong the Suſpenſion of Arms, which expir'd on the 15th Inſtant, till a Treaty of Peace is Sign'd by their Plenipotentiaries at Utrecht. This is thought to be in ſo great forwardneſs, that Preparations are making for Rejoycings upon that Occaſion, and on the 1ſt of September there is to be a Feaſt of Bulls. Her Majeſty's Ship the Fox, which has waited in this Harbour for ſome time, expecting the arrival of Sir Nicholas Trevanian, intends to ſet Sail for Great Britain without him, if he does not come in here within two Days. We have receiv'd advice from Cadiz, that Captain Paddon was arrived there, having concluded a Truce with the Emperor of Morocco for three Months.

Hamburg, July 28. N. S. Since the Swediſh Miniſters are not able to perform their Agreement about the delivery of Stetin to the King of Pruſſia, by reaſon of the obſtinate refuſal of Monſieur Meyerfeldt, the Governor, to do it without an expreſs Order from the King his Maſter, the Muſcovite and Saxon Troops have inveſted that Place on every ſide, and intend to beſiege it in Form, in order to deliver it into the Hands of his Pruſſian Majeſty, who it is ſaid will contribute whatever is wanting, for the Succeſs of that Enterprize. The Allies hope to be Maſters of the Town in three Weeks, from the opening of the Trenches, and General Baver has already taken by Storm one of the Forts nam'd the Star. The Garriſon conſiſts of Five thouſand Men, and if they were ſufficiently provided with Neceſſaries, they would be capable of making a long and vigorous Reſiſtance. The King of Denmark intended to leave Copenhagen this Day, and his Majeſty is expected at Gottorp on the 2d of next Month. He hath order'd Eleven thouſand Men to march out of Zeland into Holſtein, and reſolves to form an Army there of Thirty thouſand Men of his own Troops, including thoſe that are upon their return from Flanders. The Daniſh Vice Admiral Reis is gone to Sea with Fourteen large
